What is SDS RVCOG?

The Rogue Valley Council of Governments (RVCOG) is a voluntary association of local governments in Jackson and Josephine counties. Through its Senior and Disability Services (SDS), it assists seniors and adults with disabilities. As the Area Agency on Aging and Disabilities for this district, the RVCOG has developed a network of services to help seniors and adults with disabilities live with dignity and independence.

Advisory Council Members

Who is eligible to serve?

Members come from various backgrounds, experiences and skills—their only qualification is to be a voice and make a difference for seniors in Josephine and Jackson Counties.

Council members have the satisfaction of knowing that their involvement results in better services, timely information, and increased resources. In addition, they meet and work with other committed advocates from throughout the Rogue Valley.

What are the expectations for Council members?

To attend and actively participate in monthly Council meetings. To serve on at least one of the Council's Standing Committees, which are:

Advocacy:

Provides advocacy on aging issues at the local, county, state and national levels.

Outcomes & Evaluation:

Develops key measures to assess outcomes of RVCOG programs and services.

Nutrition Advisory Committee:

Reviews Food & Friends Program outcomes, including surveys of clients and volunteers.

Marketing & Outreach:

Increases visibility of programs in the community; solicits ideas for additional services, partnerships and funding sources.
