GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Provide, as assigned, ongoing care consultation and care coordination for RVCOG programs, which may include Oregon Project Independence (OPI), Older Americans Act (OAA) Family Caregiver (FCG) support services, STAR-C, Veteran-Directed Care (VDC), and Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) services including Information and Referral/Assistance (I&R/A) and Person-Centered Options Counseling (PCOC). Deliver similar services tailored to the needs of individual organizations and/or other present or future SDS programs.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

1. Provides service coordination for assigned programs such as OPI, FCG, STAR-C and VDC. Individualizes and integrates social and health care options for or with a person/family being served. Provides access to an array of service options to assure appropriate levels of service and maximize coordination in the service delivery system. Includes the following general components: eligibility; assessment; service implementation; monitoring; and adjustments.
2. Provides Information and Referral/Assistance (I&R/A) services through the Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC), either in-person, by telephone, or virtually. Maintains knowledge of ADRC resources and services and explains to consumers how to get help or information. Records required information in the ADRC call module and makes follow-up calls.
3. Provides PCOC services by determining the need for PCOC, conducting a person-centered assessment, educating consumer regarding community resources and options, facilitating consumer self-direction, assisting with future planning, and conducting individual follow up. Adheres to ADRC of Oregon Options Counseling Policies and Procedures. Facilitates streamlined access to public programs for those who appear eligible for one or more public Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS) options such as Medicaid, Oregon Project Independence, state revenue programs, and/or Veterans programs.
4. Provides specialized services for other present and future SDS programs, including services tailored to the needs of individual organizations.
5. Screens for referral to Aging and People with Disabilities Medicaid and Financial Assistance programs and for other available resources/programs.
6. Provides support to eligible consumers through available financial support funds including transportation, medication, food, and caregiver respite reimbursements.
7. Coordinates with other agencies and community services to meet consumer needs.
8. Maintains up-to-date and accurate information in ADRC Database and performs accurate data entry of consumer data into Oregon ACCESS, GetCare, and NAPIS.
9. Completes reports as required.
10. Participates in state and local meetings as assigned.

AUXILIARY JOB FUNCTIONS

1. Other related duties as assigned.
