

Who We Are

Background

We are a group of local volunteers who advise, educate, and advocate on issues that are important to people with disabilities.

Values

We believe in ensuring quality of life and services for all people with disabilities.

Goals

To help the local community develop processes and ways to better serve people with disabilities in Jackson and Josephine counties.

What does the DSAC do?

Disability Services Advisory Councils give feedback on state policy guidelines and issues that affect people with disabilities. DSACs work closely with state and local agencies in Oregon to advise, educate and promote person-centered services, independence, and improved quality of life for people with disabilities.
